

Reach for the Moon
 Week Commencing 8th May 2012

Dear Parents / Carers

Well and truly into the "summer term" now and the English weather is true to form! April showers have turned into May downpours! Ho hum! Whoever it is singing please stop!! (OK, I will!).

Many things still occurring this term, most of which you can read in the Tower Times or on our website. Please note that it is Year 6 SATs week next week and the children have been working very hard for their SATs. Please try to ensure that children are dropped off on time. Thank you.

OFSTED

At Huntingtower, we are not just interested in developing academic excellence; we are also interested in the whole child. Ofsted said; "Pupils are involved in a range of school and local community events and raise money for the school and local and national charities. Pupils have a good understanding of the importance of nutrition and exercise; all pupils, and almost all parents and carers think that the school helps pupils have a healthy life-style. Pupils' academic skills and personal qualities ensure that they are well prepared for the next steps in their education."

watch all ten players so eager to be part of the team during the Grantham Schools Rugby Festival. Many tries were scored and great rugby played. By the end of the festival the team was really playing flowing rugby; passing between players, working as a team and really enjoying themselves. Well done to all of them.

Ooh La La! C'est Tres Bon! - Last Thursday's Lemurs' Assembly

Last Thursday the Lemurs did a class assembly all about France and French phrases. We sang two songs. They were Frere Jacques and Deux Petites Oiseaux. Every teacher Mrs Lord walked passed said they loved it! Miss Harkins and the Tigers sent us a card saying: Dear Mrs Lord and all of the Lemurs! Congratulations! You did a French-tastic show! (Grace's words) Love from Miss Harkins, Mrs Kotlowska and the Tigers. The whole school and parents who came loved it! We were very proud!
