

Story starter!

- ▶ ‘Winter is coming.’
- ▶ People across the world had been saying it for years.
- ▶ Now, winter had arrived, and its icy clutches were spreading. A wall of ice had been creeping over the face of the world, enveloping everything in its path, inch by frosty inch. Cities and villages, forests and rivers; all had been devoured by the ever-hungry cold. When would it all end? Would the sun ever shine again?

Sentence challenge!

- ▶ Verbs are action/doing words.
- ▶ Which sentence(s) contains two verbs?
- ▶ People packed their belongings and ran for their lives.
- ▶ The snow drifted across the front door.
- ▶ The penguin stood and watched.
- ▶ The ice began to melt.

Question time!

- ▶ What is causing this seemingly endless winter?
- ▶ How do you think people will try and survive it?
- ▶ Is the winter a bad thing for all of the creatures of the world?
- ▶ What do you think this building was used for?
- ▶ Where have its inhabitants gone?
- ▶ Who do you think this statue depicts?

Sick sentences!

These sentences are 'sick' and need help to get better. Can you help? Could you add an adverb?

- ▶ It was really cold. There was lots of snow and ice.

Perfect picture!

Can you design and draw a building made entirely from ice?

